Chicks!

We have chicks back in school. Early Years welcomed some chick eggs into their classrooms earlier this week and they have all safely hatched. The children have been very excited to see this amazing event first-hand. We'll pop lots of photos online for you to take a look. They are very cute!

Silver Trail!

Help us to achieve our Lenten challenge. We'd like to raise money for CARITAS and CAFOD, two charities which are close to our hearts at St Edmund's.

To do this each class has a jar, empty at the moment. The challenge is to fill the jar with as many silver coins as possible. We'll then place them all in a trail on the school playground at the end of Lent. The class with the most silver coins will win a non-uniform day.

So, send in your spare silver change at any point, as many times as you'd like across Lent.

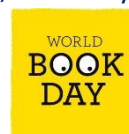

What are we all up to this half term?

Check out our class website pages to download our class newsletters. These will give you specific information about the subjects we are focusing on in different parts of the school across the half term. It is as busy and exciting as ever!

World Book Day!

We will be celebrating World Book Day on Friday 6th March 2020! Children (and staff) should come to school dressed as a book character! We can't wait to see everyone dressed up; it is always great fun.

Our theme this year is the 'Magic of Books' and all classes have already started to focus on this magical theme. Your costume does not have to link to our theme.

Extreme Reading

Our annual extreme reading competition is open for entries. Take a photo of your child reading in an 'extreme' (but safe) place and send it into school. You can print it yourself or email to school.

Book Fair

Our Annual book fair will take place in the school hall at 3.00pm Monday – Thursday week commencing 9th March 2020.

Are you ready to boogie?

As you know we are marking Sports Relief this year! All children will be taking part in an 80s 'dance a thon'. Sponsor forms have already been sent home for this.

Sports Relief is on Friday 13th March

This is a non-uniform day. Children should come to school in sports wear all day. Thank you for your support with this.
